Statement of intent

This policy outlines the framework for Abram Bryn Gates Primary School to meet its duty and obligation to publish specific information on our website.

The governing body of Abram Bryn Gates Primary School is dedicated to working fairly and transparently. We are committed to making information available to the public, as we are accountable for the effective and efficient operation of the school.

1. Legal framework

- 1.1. This policy has due regard to statutory legislation, including, but not limited to, the following:

The School Information (England) (Amendment) Regulations 2016

The Data Protection Act 2018 and the General Data Protection Regulation 2018

The Freedom of Information Act 2000

2. Information we will publish

- 2.1. School contact details – our school's website must include:

The school's name.

The school's postal address.

The school's telephone number.

The name of the member of staff who deals with queries from parents and other members of the public.

- 2.2. Admission arrangements:

We publish our school's admission arrangements each year and keep them up for the whole school year.

The arrangements explain how we will consider applications for every age group and what parents should do if they want to apply for their child to attend our school.

- 2.3. Ofsted reports:

We publish a link to the report on the school's most recent report on the Ofsted website.

- 2.4. Exam and assessment results:

- We publish the percentage of key stage 2 pupils who achieved:
- The expected standard or above in reading, writing and mathematics.
- Average progress in reading, writing and mathematics.
- An average 'scaled score' in reading, writing and mathematics.
- A high level of attainment in reading, writing and mathematics.

- 2.5. Performance tables:

We include a link to the school performance tables service on the school website.

2.6. Curriculum – the school will publish:

The content of the school curriculum in each academic year for every subject.

The names of any phonics or reading schemes used in key stage 1.

How parents or other members of the public can find out more about the curriculum the school is following.

2.7. Behaviour Policy:

The school publishes a copy of the Behaviour Policy.

The Headteacher sets out measures in the Behaviour Policy which aim to:

- Promote good behaviour, self-discipline and respect.
- Prevent bullying.
- Ensure that pupils complete assigned work.
- Regulate the conduct of pupils.

2.8. School Complaints Procedures Policy:

We publish a copy of the school Complaints Procedures Policy which explains the independent disagreement resolution arrangements available for disagreements by any person, including members of the general public.

Complainants may make a complaint about any provision of facilities or services that the school provides, unless separate statutory procedures apply (such as exclusions or admissions).

The school does not limit complaints to parents or carers of children that are registered at the school.

2.9. Pupil premium:

The school publishes a strategy for the school's use of the pupil premium which includes, for the academic year:

- The school's pupil premium grant allocation amount.
- A summary of the main barriers to educational achievement faced by eligible pupils.
- How we will spend the pupil premium to address those barriers and our reasons for that approach.
- How we will measure the impact of the pupil premium.
- The date of the next review of the school's pupil premium strategy.

2.10. PE and sport premium:

We will publish:

- How much funding we received.
- A full breakdown of how we have spent the funding or will spend the funding.
- The effect of the premium on pupils' PE and sport participation and attainment.
- How we will make sure these improvements are sustainable.

2.11. Special educational needs and disabilities (SEND) information:

We publish a SEN Report on our school's SEND Policy.

The report complies with the Children and Families Act 2014 and the Special Educational Needs and Disability Regulations 2014 and includes the following details:

- The kinds of special educational needs for which provision is made at the school.
- Information about the school's policies for the identification and assessment of pupils with special educational needs.
- Information about the school's policies for making provision for pupils with special educational needs, whether or not pupils have an education, health and care plan.

2.12. Governors' information and duties:

The school publishes information about our governors, including:

- Details of each governor's business interests.
- Details of each governor's financial interests.
- Details of each governor's governance roles in other schools.
- The structure and responsibilities of the governing board and committees.

2.13. Charging and remissions policies:

We publish our school's charging and remissions policies (this means when we cancel fees). The policies include details of:

- The activities or cases where our school will charge pupils' parents.
- The circumstances where our school will make an exception on a payment we would normally expect to receive under the policy on charging.

2.14. Values and ethos:

Our website includes a statement of our school's ethos and values.

3. Information we will not publish

- 3.1. We will not publish information which could reveal confidential information about individual members of the school community.
- 3.2. Information which is exempt under the Freedom of Information Act 2000, or is otherwise properly considered to be protected from disclosure, will not be published.
- 3.3. We will not publish any information in draft form.
- 3.4. Information which is no longer readily available as it is contained in files that have been placed in archive storage, or is difficult to access for similar reasons, will not be published.

4. Request for paper copies

- 4.1. Information which is not published under this policy can be requested in writing, when its provision will be considered in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000.
- 4.2. Charges will be made for photocopying and postage and packaging.

5. Monitoring and review

- 5.1. This policy is reviewed on an annual basis by the Headteacher in conjunction with the governing body; any changes made to this policy will be communicated to all members of staff.
- 5.2. All members of staff are required to familiarise themselves with this policy as part of their induction programme.
- 5.3. The next review date will be September 2020.
